REPORT NO.

continue to confirm the reports that Soviet families are being moved from Austria. Blding is claimed to be the entraining point for the whole of the Soviet Zone.

2. There is still no indication of any large-scale movement of troops or dumps.
3. It is also reported that a Soviet major stated in conversation with a Communist Party member on 28 June 1948 that no Soviet women or children will be in Austria by the end of August 1948. The present occupation troops are being replaced by troops in younger age groups.
